Norma J. Hostert and George Boyce Speak Vows in Mokena Methodist Church

The Methodist church in Mokena, nearly 100 years old, with the soft early evening light streaming in through the tall curtained windows gave a lovely setting for the wedding of Miss Norma Jean Hostert and George R. Boyce, Saturday evening, May 6. The pastor, Rev. Robert Prater officiated at the single ring ceremony.

The bride's hand was given in marriage by her father. She was becomingly gowned in a white frosted organza dress, ankle length with puffed sleeves, and a Peter Pan collar. Her finger-tip veil, edged with lace, was caught by a pearl tiara. She wore a sapphire brooch and carried a bouquet of Japanese Iris and lilies of the valley with a detachable corsage.

Petitions to call an election on the question of consolidating the Orland Community High School District 221 and the Palos Community High School district 222 are being circulated in the two areas. Regarding this proposed consolidation, the Orland High school board has issued the following statements:

1. It is our considered judgment that the consolidation of these two high school districts is a sound and necessary first step toward a good school. The proposal may not be perfect, but we feel that it is the best plan available to us.

2. It seems impractical for us to continue much longer to operate our high school under the present plan because recent school legislation will take away from us almost one-third of our high school enrollment, that is, our students coming from Palos, Bremen and Frankfort townships. This loss, which will reduce our annual income by $12,000 to $15,000 will have to be made up by increasing our local high school tax rate unless we can effect a consolidation and thereby increase our assessed valuation.

3. We have been studying this and other possible plans for many months, and we shall try to pass on to you information pertinent to the proposed consolidation through weekly newspaper articles and possibly by means of one or more direct letters.

4. We hope to sponsor a Question and Answer column in this newspaper in the coming weeks to deal with the people's questions on our high school problem. If you have questions, please send them to the Board of Education or to the Superintendent of Schools.

Board of Education:
Edward A. Gee, president; Ralph L. Town, secretary; W. R. Blew, Howard Cooper, Owen Maue.

Flying Roof Barely Misses Mokena Man

A Mokena man had a narrow escape Friday when the high wind hit this vicinity. Hugh Deadmore, who drives a truck for the signal department of the E.J. & E. railroad, was heading south on route 52, a few miles south of West Chicago, about 3 o'clock in the afternoon when he saw a roof blow off of a house near the highway. The roof, which was heading straight for the highway, dropped directly in front of the truck.

Mr. Deadmore said the force of the wind had slowed the truck down and he was able to stop just in time to avoid being hit by the roof which landed squarely on the road. He was unable to proceed until the roof was hauled off the road with a tractor.

The retiring commander, Eino Saarela, expressed his gratitude to the comrades and several friends of the Post who have donated their

TINLEY PARK IS 2ND IN SAFETY TRAFFIC AWARD

Last Wednesday Mayor Rose Brown of Tinley Park attended the all day meeting of the Cook County Traffic Safety commission held in Sherman hotel.

There was a large number in attendance who enjoyed listening to the speaker, Dr. Maddox, of Thornton township high school, when he spoke on, "Education in Traffic Safety." He mentioned that it appears we have been educating the people wrong on this traffic problem. We have been giving arrest tickets to offenders of traffic. They pay their fine and go out and do the same thing over. That has taken on an attitude of selling traffic tickets or the merchandise of traffic. It therefore becomes necessary to sell to the people the idea that they are needed to help obey traffic rules and prevent accidents.

Ornamental plaques were awarded to 101 Cook county suburban towns which were winners in traffic safety during 1949, according to the following five population classes:

Berkeley: under 1,000; 5 accidents 3 injured, none killed.
Tinley Park: 1,000 to 2,500; 16 accidents, 8 injured, none killed.
Western Springs: 2,500 to 5,000; 32 accidents, 19 injured, none killed.
Riverside: from 5,000 to 10,000; 84 accidents, 50 injured, 2 killed.
Elmhurst Park: 10,000 to 25,000; 203 accidents, 78 injured, 1 killed.
Evanston: 25,000 to 100,000; 1090 accidents, 356 injured, 2 killed.

The plaque which was awarded to Mayor Brown for Tinley Park reads: "Situation for Achievement in Traffic Safety for the year 1949. Presented to the Village of Tinley Park by the Cook County Traffic Safety Commission. Signed: W. W. Erickson."

In the presentation of the award Mrs. Brown, president of Tinley Park, practicing lawyer and mother of four children, was hailed by President Erickson as, "an important figure in the new conception of traffic safety as the concern of every family as well as the authorities."

MANY ATTEND 55TH ANNIVERSARY OF MR. AND MRS. FRED WARNING

Over 200 friends and relatives gathered in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warning in Frankfort to help them celebrate their 55th wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon and evening, May 7.

It was 55 years ago May 8 when Miss Katherine Kimray and Fred Warning were united in marriage by the late Rev. Schaub in the home of the bride's parents in Mokena. Their attendants, her sister, Mrs. Charles Hansen and his brother, John Warning at New Lenox, are also both living, altho Mrs. Hansen has been confined to bed for several years.

The Warnings farmed at Mokena for six years then moved to the Thompson farm at Frankfort where they lived for 10 years, then moved to Frankfort where they bought a home. But Mr. Warning started a tiling business at Mokena and later a feed business at the same place which he continued for a number of years. Following this he went into the garage business with his son Ray at Frankfort, and at the same time bought the picnic grove just north of Frankfort on route 45 where he conducted and managed picnics for many years. Now he

The Mokena Community Volunteer Fire Department has captured a "Wise Old Owl" as you can see by reading on another page of this paper. And the old owl has many wise sayings, so we think that it escaped from King Solomon's tomb. Among his sayings is "It's a fact! The people who support the community fire department usually don't have fires."

Members of the fire department recently sent out tickets for their fifth annual dance to be held this coming Saturday at the VFW Hall in Mokena.

Purchasers of these tickets are not merely buying dance tickets -- but are, each and every one, supporting the village fire department. They are helping to keep the equipment in tiptop shape as well as aiding in buying needed new equipment. They can do this to help the department; and also have an evening's good time thrown in.

If you hear the siren blow and it DOES come to your house, all ticket buyers can feel that they had a part in getting the efficient service and the saving of a much greater loss than they would have without the department.

Members are calling you to attend their dance this Saturday evening, starting at nine o'clock.

There will be a good orchestra, plenty of good refreshments available in addition to the grand time everyone always has at the firemen's affairs.

The annual pinocle tournament is scheduled to start at 8 o'clock.

There is a whispering going on that the department is planning some nice prizes also and the only way to find that out, is to attend.

Konow-Mitchell Wedding in Joliet

Miss *Lorence L. Konow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Konow of Homer township, and Ross Mitchell of Joliet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mitchell of Collinsville, Alabama were united in marriage, Saturday April 29 at 11 o'clock in the Richard Street Methodist church, Joliet, with the Rev. Robert K. Mulligan, pastor of the church officiating.

Attending the couple were her sister, Mrs. Joseph Miller, Jr. and the groom's friend, Robert Schone.

The bride chose for her wedding a gray suit with pink hat and accessories, while Mrs. Miller wore a beige suit with pineapple green accessories. Both had corsages of roses.

Following a honeymoon trip to Alabama, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell are residing in a newly purchased home in Lockport.

The bride has been employed for some time at the Corn Products plant at Argo while the groom has a position at the Lincoln-Mercury garage in Joliet.

ROCK ISLAND BUILDS NEW CROSSING AT MOKENA

The Rock Island railroad has just completed the building of a new 24 foot crossing at Mokena. They will also build a good plank sidewalk on each side of the crossing which will be a big improvement.

The rough crossing at Cappel's crossing is being worked on all the time by the section men, but it seems that the bottom is always giving way as soon as it is repaired, making it very rough all the time.

rents the grounds and the renters manage the picnics.

Mr. Warning, 79, and Mrs. Warning, 76, are both well and active and working as usual keeping house and visiting with their children's families and other relatives and friends.

The open house Sunday was given by their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Warning.

The home was decorated with many beautiful plants and flowers. Mrs. Warning had a tea rose corsage and Mr. Warning a carnation boutonniere. They received many lovely cards and gifts.

In the dining room a three tiered wedding cake with green decorations, centered the table, with lighted tapers. Mrs. Stanley Warning and Mrs. Glenn Warning, grandchildren, presided at the silver coffee urn. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Elsie Andrews, Mrs. Roy Haut and Mrs. Martin Miller.

Midcentury—A Call For Youth Study

Fascinating notion isn't it—this business of being caught right in the middle of a century? It's been the ad man's boon and the numerologist's enigma, and we've all amused ourselves by tossing it around a bit.

One group of Illinois citizens has been taking the idea seriously—so seriously, in fact, that they've called a meeting at Chicago's Palmer House May 18 and 19 to discuss it.

A heterogeneous group of some 2,000 individuals ranging from housewives to college professors, they're meeting to take an inventory which they think will mean as much to Illinois as the census means to the country as a whole. They're calling it a "midcentury inventory of Illinois services to youth."

That inventory is to be the theme of the 19th annual State Conference on Youth and Community Service. The yearly event, a pioneer in the trend toward state conferences on youth problems, is sponsored by the state Department of Public Welfare's division for Youth and Community Service, with the backing of 70 other agencies and organizations.

This will be the nineteenth time that Illinois citizens have met to plan for the future of the young people in their state, but it will be the first time they have stopped to view past accomplishments in the light of future developments.

There will be much to consider. Old-timers will recall how the conference once dealt with nothing but treatment of juvenile delinquents, and how it was then sponsored by the Big Brothers and Sisters association, the organization which sired the present state division. But it isn't with reminiscences that the delegates are going to concern themselves. Instead it will be with the services the state has to offer its young people, and the adequacy of these resources as they are related to the individual town or neighborhood. The inventory will include everything from national character-building agencies to neighborhood committees, with the emphasis always on the local community.

They aren't banner-toting crusaders, these 2,000 delegates. They don't sound off with flowery speeches, or recite long lists of resolutions. The only resolutions they make are private ones—usually a determination to return to their home neighborhoods and put to use the practical knowledge they have acquired, a knowledge of the ways to encourage and sustain citizen participation in community affairs for youth welfare.

Don't look for sensational headlines from the conference. What happens there may not be known for years to come. There is no way of counting the number of neighborhood committees which will spring up all over the state as a result of the conference; no way of knowing how many youngsters otherwise destined by their anti-social behavior to a life of correctional institutions and crime members of their communities gained a new concern and will get a chance to adjust to normal society; all because understanding for the welfare of all children.

No, there probably won't be any spectacular developments at the conference, but communities all over the state will be watching it just the same. They know the foundation we give our youngsters will determine the kind of leadership we'll have in the world tomorrow.

We won't be seeing another midcentury—not in our lifetime. This sounds like a sensible way to celebrate it.

More Delay in Corn Planting Needed to Hurt Borers Most

The cold, late spring has delayed corn borer development about two weeks and that means we should not plant corn until later than the usual recommended dates for delayed planting.

In other words, says John Bigger, we should hold off on corn planting as late as possible during the recommended planting period. That way we'll do the most damage to borers by delayed planting. Bigger is insect specialist in the Illinois Natural History Survey.

The planting period recommended earlier this year was May 15-25. However, with slower borer growth due to cold weather, the corn planting date will now have to be moved later by as many days as the borers have been delayed. Otherwise we'll have corn at just the right stage for heavy borer losses later this summer.

Bigger explains that to do the most damage to borers we should plant corn late enough that it will be small when borers lay their eggs in June. This applies in early, normal or late seasons. Small corn protects borer eggs much less from wind, rain and sun.

In a late season, like this one, if we plant corn early, during the period May 15-25, that corn in effect will be just right for borers. It will be tall when egg-laying time comes along about two weeks later than usual in a normal season.

Bigger adds that you can plant corn almost as late as June 1 with out cutting your yields. Six years of tests by the College of Agriculture clearly prove that corn planted the last two weeks in May yields just as well as earlier planted corn. Yields averaged 95 bushels an acre for corn planted on June 1 at Urbana in 1945-47.

Bigger adds that we should all cooperate in observing the late May planting period. The question is: Are we going to cooperate with corn borers or against them? For over 25 years we have successfully controlled Hessian fly in wheat by regulating the planting dates. Why not include corn borers?

SAFETY PATROL FOUNDER TO BE FETED IN WASH.

For pioneering the safety patrols, Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club, will be honored by special observances in Washington D. C., May 12 and 13.

Growth of the safety patrol movement from the idea that selected children could be trained to guide their classmates across busy intersections, to its present world wide use, will be reviewed.

Since the formation of the safety patrols in 1922, death rates among school age children, 5 - 14 years, have dropped from 15.8 per ten thousand in 1923 to 9.9 in 1948, a decrease of 37 percent.

When the population was 106 million in 1923, 3700 school age children lost their lives in traffic accidents. In 1948 when the population was 146 million, 2350 school age children - 1250 fewer - died on the streets and highways. At the same time, motor vehicle registrations had tripled and gasoline consumption increased sevenfold.

The nation's motor vehicle registrations jumped from 12,270,000 vehicles in 1923 to 40,622,000 in 1948. Gasoline consumption, an accurate index of motor vehicle use, rose from 4 billion gallons in 1922 to 30 billion in 1948.

While traffic hazards were becoming more numerous adult fatality rates increased proportionately. The 15-24 years group increased from 3500 traffic deaths in 1922 to 7100 in 1948. The 15-44 years group went from 5500 deaths to 8600 during the same years. The 45-64 group rose from 4800 to 7200 and the 65 years and older suffered 2900 traffic deaths in 1922 and 5150 deaths in 1948.

The death rates by age groups averaged a 50 percent increase among adults during the same years that child traffic fatality rates were being reduced by 45 percent. Safety authorities have explained that the education is due chiefly to schools training and the safety patrol movement which help the youngsters protect themselves against traffic hazards.

Illinois TAX FACTS

By George P. Mahin, Executive Secretary
Taxpayers Federation of Illinois

The Post Office Department's curtailment on mail service is like the man who laid down the law to his wife about her spending habits when he got the bills at the end of the month...with the net result that he gave up smoking to balance the budget.

Isn't it a peculiar coincidence that the order curtailing post office service was handed down at this particular time.

A. When Congress is considering the amount it will appropriate for the Post Office Department for the period from July 1 of this year to June 30, 1951.

B. When individual members of Congress have been becoming more and more economy-minded.

C. When citizens throughout the nation are learning more and more about the findings of the Hoover Commission... that the Post Office Department this year will spend around half a billion dollars more than its income.

It's an old trick, and one that the Government bureaucrats have found successful time after time, this business of making curtailments in a service closest to the people in order to arouse a storm of protests to bring undue pressure on an economy-minded Congress and prevent other curtailments that should be made of wasteful and non-essential functions.

It's high time that the people back home and the members of Congress recognize this trick for what it is.

Lets look at the Post Office Department's curtailment order more closely. Residential mail deliveries will be once a day instead of twice. Actually, what hardship is a citizen going to suffer if he doesn't get a letter or magazine... or bill ... until the next morning? Is there any valid reason why business firms cannot complete their window service requirements, such as the purchase of stamps and the mailing of packages, during the regulation work day instead of at night or over weekends? Here seems to be a clear-cut case of convenience versus necessity. It puts the issue squarely before each of us: Are we willing to buy economy at the price of some inconvenience.

If we are willing to say: "I am for economy, period" instead of "I am for economy, but", then each of us should write to our Senators Scott Lucas and Paul Douglas, and to our Representative in Congress, urging them to stand pat on the reduced postal service, and to go a step farther by voting for S. 2213 and HR5775 recommended by the Citizens Committee for the Hoover Report to take the Post Office Department out of politics and to eliminate waste, extravagance and inefficiency from postal operations.

The square dance given by Ann Rutledge PTA in the Frankfort school gym last Saturday evening proved to be a most enjoyable affair. A crowd of around two hundred turned out and even those who had planned to watch wound up "swinging their partners" to Jim Lackey's very excellent calling. Many of the local people had groups out from the city and surrounding towns.

Mr. Jay Bissell and Mrs. Robert Wheeler, co-chairmen of the affair, wish to thank all who cooperated so well to make the dance a success.

Inside Bobzin Swinford tU8rh.
This month, May, is the month that the Bobzin-Swinford Post 1098 of Frankfort drives to Hines, hospital. This service was started in January and is sponsored by the Will county council of the American Legion. Each post in the county takes one month as it's month to drive to Hines hospital. Anyone who has relatives staying at Hines can use this service by calling Ed Daniels at the Harwood Post in Joliet, not later than Saturday, the day before the Sunday the party wishes to go. Those going will meet at Harwood Post by one o'clock Sunday afternoon to be picked up by the drivers going to the hospital.

Sunday May 7, Commander Russell Carroll and Adjutant Kenneth Oetter drove to Hines hospital to start the month of May for Frankfort.

It would be quite interesting if on one of the next Sunday's a group of Legionnaires from our Post should make the trip and make a tour of the hospital.

Minor children of a deceased World War I veteran may be entitled to a government pension even though a surviving parent is inelligible because of income restrictions or remarriage, the Illinois Veterans Commission said today.

Payments under the pension law allow $21.60 a month for one child; $32.40 for two children; and $43.20
for three children (equally divided).

Requirements of the federal government are that a veteran must have served in World War I before November 2, 1918, and must have served 90 days or more and discharged under conditions other than dishonorable.

A widow of a veteran, upon remarriage, need not file a new claim for her minor children but she must submit a certified copy of her marriage before the pension can be changed in favor of her children. Acceptance of a government check after marriage constitutes a fraud and is punishable by law.

Under certain conditions minor children of World War II veterans can also qualify for this benefit.

Service officers of the Illinois Veterans Commission can furnish information or assistance on claims for pensions.

In Will county, veterans or dependents can secure aid at the IVC

Mud Lake Gets "Cleared Up"

County officers got a notice from the government not long ago, asking them to change the name of Mud Lake. Seems it's a pond, not a lake, by government standards.

Because it lies entirely inside our town limits, we asked to do the name-changing ourselves. Figured we'd think up a brand-new name.
Mud Lake's really not very muddy —sort of pretty, in fact.

County people said go ahead, so we held a Town Meeting. Everyone suggested something. Windy Taylor thought "Taylor Pond" would be nice, because his place borders it—for about 30 feet! But we finally decided to call it "Turtle Pond" in honor of the real owners.

From where I sit, naming that pond wasn't the most important thing in the world—but the way we did it was. Everyone offered his opinion and then the majority vote decided it. That's the way it should be—whether it concerns naming a pond, or having the right to enjoy a friendly glass of beer or ale—if and when we choose.

Outstanding Economy

one more reason why
John Deere is first choice of the tractor-wise!

Ask any owner what he likes best about his John Deere Tractor. Sooner or later he'll stress the remarkable economy. It's more than a claim; it's economy you can measure in dollars and cents.

You get greater fuel economy with a John Deere. The cyclonic-fuel-intake engine assures better combustion, increased efficiency. In addition, the John Deere has more built-in weight.
Heavy engine and transmission parts are located well toward the rear to provide better traction and prevent loss of power and fuel through excessive wheel slippage.

Maintenance expense is less because there's less to go wrong with a John Deere. Exclusive two-cylinder design greatly reduces the number of parts. Remaining parts are larger, heavier, stronger. As a result, trips to the repair shop are few and far between... much less costly when you own a John Deere.

In addition, John Deere Tractors offer:

- GREATER DEPENDABILITY
- LONGER LIFE
- GREATER COMFORT
- OUTSTANDING QUALITY
- EASIER HANDLING
- EASIER MAINTENANCE
- COMPLETE INTEGRAL EQUIPMENT
- UNEXCELLED VIEW
- GREATER ADAPTABILITY
- HYDRAULIC POWER-TROL
- ROLL-O-MATIC
- LUGGING POWER

Forgiving Love

Lesson for May 14, 1950.

ALL RELIGIONS believe in God, but not all religions know the God who loves. Gods that rule, gods that threaten and punish, gods that sit on high and distant thrones—yes, the history of religions shows plenty of these. But it is not every religion that believes in a God capable of love. We Christians say that God is love, but already centuries before Christ the inspired Hebrew prophet Hosea was saying that the high God, the holy God, not only can but does love his creatures on earth.

Dr. Foreman

Love With an IF
BUT HOSEA goes further than this. Even the religions that teach the love of God do not always understand it. That there are "favorites of heaven" is an idea common to many religions, ancient and recent.

The notion that God loves those who love him, that his love is a reward for good behavior, that he loves good people but not bad people, in short that he loves only the lovable—this is believed by a great many, but it is not true. To put it in another way: Many religions, and even some persons in the Hebrew and Christian religions, suppose that God loves us with an IF.

Some of the more primitive religions think of God as loving only if he feels like it, if he happens to be in the right mood. There is no telling when he may love and when not; he is as unpredictable as spring weather. The higher religions know better; God is not capricious and impulsive like a child.

But still sometimes even in better religions God is thought of as loving with an IF. If you love me (he is thought of as saying) I will love you. If you are good enough to love, I will love you. If you earn my love, I will pay you by loving you.

No IF in God's Heart
HOSEA HAD LEARNED a deeper lesson from God. Through his own bitter experience (see last Sunday's lesson) he knew that his own love for his wife outlived all the shame she had brought to his heart and home. In himself he knew, as a living fact, love for an unloving and unlovable person. So—and so much more—God could, would and did love his unfaithful people Israel.

"God so loved Israel—," said the prophet. "God so loved the world," says the Gospel. God's love is not the bargaining kind. He does not wait till we are "good enough." His love has no IF in it.

Suppose We Say No?
AT THIS POINT something must be said that would seem to go without saying, only there are so many persons who misunderstand the truth just here. God is love: we learned that in Sunday school when we were small, we have seen it in mottoes on the wall, we have grown used to the idea. But sometimes we twist this truth into something else.

We think, "If God is love then it doesn't matter much what we do. He is going to look after us and see that we come out all right. Nothing's going to hurt us because our loving Father is right here to protect us." This is a mistake.

Hosea teaches, and the Bible as a whole teaches, that God's love is not compulsive; that is, his love must be freely received because it is freely offered. We can say "No" if we insist.

And if we do turn our backs and run away, the consequences are terrible and not even God's love will keep us from them.

It is only the person who turns his heart to God who finds that love, like sunlight, casting out the fear and the evil from his mind and heart.

The Cost of Love
THE DEEPEST TRUTH of all is one which Hosea partly sees, but is fully seen only in the New Testament. God's love for sinners is costly. It is not a light thing, easily given.

As Hosea's forgiving of Gomer cost him much, so the love of God for his wandering children costs him more. That this is true, Hosea realizes. But to know what the love of God really costs, we have to stand in the light of Calvary. Paul speaks of the church of God "which he purchased with his own blood." There can be no higher price than that.

PLANS TOLD OF CATHEDRAL TO BE IN JOLIET

Preliminary plans for the new Cathedral of St. Raymond in the Diocese of Joliet have been completed, it has been announced by Bishop Martin D. McNamara. The proposed Cathedral is to be erected on Raynor Avenue at an estimated cost of $2,000,000.

Bishop McNamara will head a Diocesan-wide campaign beginning June to raise funds for the Cathedral. At the present time, 500 lay and clerical leaders are working on organization plans in all 72 parishes. It is planned to increase this number to 5000 by the time the campaign begins.

The new Cathedral will follow the Italian Renaissance period in architectural design, employing Lombard style and motif; the style of architecture was chosen to generally harmonize with present school and church buildings at St. Raymond's.

The Cathedral will not be of monumental proportions, but is designed to provide facilities and sufficient space for full performance of all Diocesan ceremonies and Episcopal rites.

As the Mother of the new Diocese of Joliet in Illinois, the Cathedral will be cruciform in shape; construction will be in red brick, trimmed with harmonizing stone, with other features to distinguish it as a cathedral; total seating capacity will approximate 1200-1064 on the main floor and 150 in the gallery over the Narthex or Vestibule; five entrances will be conveniently located; the main and two side entrances leading to the Narthex and two side vestibule entrances leading into the Transept, convenient to side pews, confessionals, side altars and other facilities.

Dominating the interior will be the 36 foot main altar which will be within clear vision from all parts of the Nave, made possible by the absence of pillars; there will be four large rose windows and six mosaic glass side windows 23 feet high. On all sides of the interior will be marble wainscoting topped by coffer simulated walls and ceiling in green pastel shades. All will be surmounted by the supola rising over the transept.

The Bishop's throne, is the distinguishing feature of the interior. There will be four side altars, and other highly decorative appointments.

The Nave, from the large vestibule to the Sanctuary wall, will be 140 feet long. The vestibule will be flanked on the left by the brides rest room and the Diocesan-parish library, on the right by the ushers' room and stair hall to the gallery. Large plate-glass doors will separate the vestibule from the Nave.

To the left of the large sanctuary will be the children's room, where mothers with infants may hear Mass in a glass-fronted room equipped with sound transmission. Connecting will be the baptistry, with easy access to the priests' Sacristy behind the main altar. On the right will be the clerks' Sacristy for altar boys and store room for the altar supplies. The stair halls on either side will lead to the organ loft on the right and the choir on the left. Special consideration has been given to the aged, disabled, and others.
